Also one last thing so this group knows, NO ONE EVER TOLD MK that there was a threat against her nor that Brook had threaten her, nor had he made any threats towards her. My issue was his behavior and my feeling that he could hurt himself or someone. So everyone should stop reacting, settle down until this all comes out as it will!!!

So you all know, Brooks is already out of jail DINA!!!

I am confused about this entire issue, I spent my day in prayer to think yesterday. If the DEM caucus put out a statement this is an ongoing investigation and that we dont know the details, then why are statements giving to the press.

I believe you have to operate as if you have walked in the other person shoes.... what are those shoes have you walked them?

These newspaper articles are only telling one side of the story and creating a judgment without a jury and that is wrong. This is no judgment on what happened to anyone else's life, this is about fairness.

I think we can help him get out on OR with a simple letter to a judge, so that he can at least tell his side of the story and go home.

William, I heard you. I understand your safety issue, but you have police protection.

This has snowballed, to what was a paragraph story to a page and a half of Speculation. Im thinking about this in terms, of what if this was me, what is this was my life, would we allow..my life to be told and judged in a newspaper.. AS IF I HAD NO DEPTH.

I know he needs to accept responsibility for his actions, but he is more than this allegation!. What if it is was you, how would you want your life to be portrayed
