

We have had the best...

Lawrence Jacobson, 1963-77

Speaker of the Assembly. Chairman of the National Legislative Service and Security Advisory Committee; Chairman, Western Legislative Conference; Chairman, Nevada Veterans' Services Commission

Louis W. Bergevin, 1979-1992

Republican Assembly Minority Floor Leader, Assembly Wall of Fame, President of the Nevada Cattlemen's Association

Lynn Hettrick, 1993-2005

Co-Speaker of the Assembly, Minority Floor Leader. Chair, Council of State Governments. 2001 Leader of the Year Award from the National Republican Legislators Association.

James Settelmeyer, 2007-2009

Served with distinction as our Assemblyman. Currently our State Senator

In 2012 we have...

Jim Wheeler,
Nevada
Embarrassment.

We deserve better now.

Jim Wheeler has brought us nothing but scorn, national and international embarrassment. No significant legislative accomplishments. Graded a D+ as a Legislator. Condemnation from Fellow Elected Republicans.

From London –

Daily Mail

A Nevada assemblyman came under fire Monday after a YouTube video surfaced in which he told a Republican gathering he would vote to allow slavery if that is what his constituents wanted him to do.

From Washington, DC –

The Washington Post

Wheeler found his moral core (however hollow it might be) after he got caught.

From California –

Los Angeles Times

Now that Wheeler's views on slavery have been clarified, perhaps the debate will move on to other burning questions, like whether women should be entitled to vote, Nevada should be admitted to the union as the 36th state and whether the Earth is, in fact, round.

Inside Nevada –

LAS VEGAS REVIEW-JOURNAL

Wheeler “unfit for public service... should resign.” editorial (10/29/13)

What Fellow Republicans say about Wheeler

U.S. Sen. Dean Heller: Wheeler's comments are “insensitive and wrong,”

Governor Brian Sandoval: “Assemblyman Wheeler's comments are deeply offensive.”

Republican Senate Minority Leader Michael Roberson: “It's time for Jim Wheeler to find a new line of work.”

Assembly Republican Caucus: Unanimously voted to “Reprimand” Assemblyman Jim Wheeler for his offensive comments...”

Assemblywoman Michele Fiore, a conservative Republican: “...there is no place in our society for the comments made by Assemblyman Wheeler who doesn't even understand that the United States is a republic...”

Make YOUR voice heard around the world.

Vote Wheeler OUT on June 10
